Whereas the Apprentice has requested the Employer to engage him as an Apprentice for training in the designated subject field of under the Apprentices Act, 1961.

And whereas the Employer having satisfied himself that the Apprentice has requisite qualifications for being engaged as an Apprentice under Apprentices Act, 1961 and the rules made thereunder, has agreed to engage him as an Apprentice in Employers' Establishment on the terms and conditions hereinafter appearing subject to the Surety joining in his agreement as herein contained.

And whereas the Surety of the Apprentice and in consideration of the provisions has agreed to join in this agreement.

NOW THESE PRESENTS WITNESSES and it is mutually agreed by and between the parties as follows:

1. The Employer hereby agrees to engage the Apprentice as an Apprentice in the designated subject field and Apprentice hereby agrees to serve the Employer as an Apprentice as hereinafter provided.
2. The period of training shall be one year commencing from the date Apprentice is asked to report for training. In the event of the Apprentice being unable to complete apprenticeship programme within the said period owing to illness or other circumstances beyond his control, the employer shall extend the period of his Apprenticeship until he completes the prescribed period if so required by the Apprenticeship Adviser concerned.
3. The Apprentice hereby declares that no other contract of Apprenticeship already subsists between him and any other employer and undertakes that he shall not enter into any other contract of Apprenticeship with any other employer before the expiry or termination of this contract of Apprenticeship.
4. Subject as hereinbefore and hereinafter provided the contract of Apprenticeship shall terminate on the expiry of the period of Apprenticeship Training. During Apprenticeship Training either party may make an application to the central Apprenticeship Adviser for the earlier termination of contract and when such an application is made the party making the application shall send by post a copy thereof to the other party to the Contract. The Central Apprenticeship Adviser after considering the contents of the application and the objections, if any, filed by the other party, may terminate the contract if he is satisfied that the parties to the contract or any of them have or has failed to carry out the terms and conditions of the Contract and that it is desirable in the interests of the parties or any of them to terminate the same.

Provided that the party responsible for the termination of contract due to his failure to carry out the terms and conditions of contract shall pay compensation as laid-down in the Apprentices Act 1961 and Rules thereunder.

Provided further that no compensation shall be payable by any party, if all the parties are agreed that it is desirable in the interest of the parties or any of them to terminate the contract, subject to the condition that the Apprentice shall not be eligible for engagement by the same or any other employer as Apprentice under the Act.

5. (i) Notwithstanding anything contained in clauses (2),(3) and (4) above and hereinafter provided in the contract, the Apprentice on satisfactory completion of Apprenticeship within the meaning of Apprentices Act, 1961, shall be regularized in the grade/pay scale as per term & conditions of the offer of appointment. He shall be governed by the service rules of the Employer, applicable to all other employees already in the employer's service.

- (ii) The Apprentice, who has so agreed and entered into this agreement, with the Employer to the effect stated in clause (i) above for being appointed as a Management Trainee (Technical) and thereafter to a regular post shall not be permitted to terminate this contract in any case except with due and prior consent in writing of the Employer.
6. A. The Employer shall further carry out his obligation as under:
- i) During the period of Apprenticeship the Employer shall pay to the Apprentice as per terms and conditions of the offer of appointment.
 - ii) Where the contract of the Apprenticeship is terminated through failure on the part of the Employer to carry out the terms and conditions of the contract he shall pay to the Apprentice compensation as laid down in the Apprentices act, 1961 and rules (amended from time to time).
- B. Subject as hereinbefore and hereinafter provided, the Employer and the Apprentice shall carry out their obligations as contained in Schedule I and II enclosed.
7. Any disagreement or dispute between the Employer and the Apprentice arising out of this contract shall be referred to the Central Apprenticeship Adviser for decision. Any person aggrieved by the decision of the Central Apprenticeship Adviser may within 30 days from the date of communication to him of such decision prefer an appeal against the decision, to the Central Apprenticeship Council and such appeal shall be heard and determined by the Committee of the Council appointed for the purpose. The decision of such Committee and subject to such decision, the decision of the Central Apprenticeship Council, shall be final.
8. A. In the event of termination of contract of Apprenticeship or failure on the part of the Apprentice to carry out terms of the contract, the Surety at the request of the Apprentice hereby guarantees to the Employer and the Central Government the payment on demand and without demur of such amount as may be determined by the Central Apprenticeship Adviser as and towards the cost of training of the Apprentice.
- B. The liability of the surety shall not at any time exceed the amount as specified in the Apprentices act, 1961 and rules with interest thereof at the company borrowing rate.
- C. The neglect or forbearance of the Employer or the Central Government in enforcing payment of any money, the payment whereof is intended to be hereby secured or the giving of time by the Employer or the Central Government for the payment thereof, shall not in any way release the Surety of his liability under the guarantee hereinbefore contained.

Obligations of Employer

1. The Employer shall make suitable arrangement in his establishment for imparting a course of Apprenticeship training to the Apprentice in accordance with the provisions of the Act and Rules thereunder and with the approval of the Apprenticeship Adviser.
2. Where any person has, during his course in Technical Institution, become a Graduate or Technician Apprentice and during his Apprenticeship training he has to receive related instruction, then the Employer shall release such person from training to instruction in such institution for such period as may be specified by the Apprenticeship Adviser.
3. (a) The Employer shall pay stipend to the Apprentice as laid down in the Apprentices act, 1961 and rules.
(b) The stipend for a particular month shall be paid by the 10th day of the following month. No deduction shall be made from the stipend for the period during which the Apprentice remains on casual and medical leave. Stipend shall, however, not be paid for the period for which apprentice remains on extraordinary leave.
(c) The continuance of the stipend will be subject to satisfactory report on the Apprentice's work and conduct. In case of unsatisfactory progress of the Apprentice, the Employer may withhold the stipend and refer the matter to the Apprenticeship Adviser concerned.
4. No Apprentice shall be engaged on training between hours of 10 P.M. and 6.00 A.M. except with the prior approval of the Apprenticeship Adviser, who shall give his approval if he is satisfied that it is in the interest of the training of the Apprentice or in public interest.
5. Grant of Leave to Apprentices:
In establishments where proper leave rules do not exist or the total leave of different types admissible to their workers is less than thirty seven days in a year, the apprentice shall be entitled to the following kind of leave and subject to the conditions specified under such kind of leave.
 - A. Casual Leave
 - i) Casual leave shall be admissible for a maximum period of twelve days in a year.
 - ii) Any holiday intervening during the period of casual leave shall not be counted for the purpose of limit of twelve days.
 - iii) Casual leave not utilised during any year shall stand lapsed at the end of the year.
 - iv) Casual leave shall not be combined with medical leave. If casual leave is preceded or followed by medical leave, the entire leave taken shall be treated either as medical or casual leave provided that it shall not be allowed to exceed the maximum period prescribed in respect of medical or casual leave as the case may be.
 - v) Except in the case of extreme urgency applications for such leave, shall be made to the appropriate authority and sanction obtained prior to the availing of leave.
 - B. Medical Leave
 - i) Medical leave upto fifteen days for each year of training may be granted to the apprentice who is unable to attend duty owing to illness. The unused leave shall be allowed to accumulate upto a maximum of forty days.
 - ii) Any holiday intervening during the period of medical leave shall be treated as medical leave and accounted for in the limits prescribed under clause (i) above.
 - iii) The Employer may call upon the Apprentice to produce a medical certificate from a registered medical practitioner in support of his medical leave. A medical certificate shall however be necessary if the leave exceeds six days.
 - iv) It shall be open to the Employer to arrange a special examination of an Apprentice if he has reason to believe that the Apprentice is not really ill or the illness is not of such a nature as to prevent his attendance.
 - C. Extraordinary Leave
 - i) Extraordinary leave upto a maximum of ten days or more in a year may be granted to the Apprentice after he has exhausted the entire casual and medical leave, if the Employer is satisfied with the grounds on which the leave is applied for.
 - ii) In case of establishments where proper leave rules exist for workers, the leave to the Apprentices shall be granted by the Employers in accordance with these rules.
6. Where the contract of the Apprenticeship is terminated through failure on the part of the Employer to carry out the terms and conditions of the contract he shall pay to the Apprentice compensation as laid down in the Apprentices act, 1961 and rules.
7. The Employer will arrange for a suitable person to be placed in charge of the training of Apprentices as laid down under the Act and Rules thereunder.
